An American institution, America's Funniest Home Videos is ABC's longest-running comedy series! As the storage facility of our country's "bloopers" for more than 15 years, the hit show has presented the unexpectedly funny moments that happen when things don't go quite as planned. From practical jokes to home improvement plans gone awry, from animal mishaps to just flat out strange behavior, America's Funniest Home Videos pulls out all the stops to present a hilarious look at everyday people caught on tape in their most uproarious and unexpected human moments. The supply from the video cameras of the American public has been endless. And really, really funny!

Currently in its 19th season on Network Prime, and available for the first time in syndication!
